AUSTRIAN TRAVEL

Vienna and all the western zones of Austria are now open all year to both tourists and business visitors. The special hotels of the official tourist project have been stocked with food purchased abroad with foreign exchange derived from the tourist traffic. Visitors receive four meals totalling 4500 calories daily. The plan both protects the Austrian food supply and makes it unnecessary for visitors to pay black market prices for unrationed food.

HOW TO GET A VALID PASSPORT AND MILITARY PERMIT FOR AUSTRIA:

Citizens of the United States, England, France, Belgium, Luxembourg, Switzerland, Holland, Denmark, Sweden and Norway who wish to visit Austria as tourists must:

1. Request their travel agents to cable or write air mail when time permits, a hotel of the official list, making a reservation for a minimum of one week. In the case of cable reservations, prepay a twentyfive word reply.

2. Instruct their tourist agents to send their names, hotels, dates of reservations to: Rudolf F. Mattesich, Representative for North America of The Austrian State Tourist Department, 247 Park Avenue, New York 17, N.Y., asking for a letter of allocation.

3. Turn over -- the hotel reply and the allocation letter to the Passport Bureau when applying for passport and permit.

Holders of Passports follow the same procedure except that they may send the hotel confirmation and allocation letter with their passports directly to the Passport Division of the State Department in Washington, D.C. It takes from ten days to two weeks to obtain validation and permit.

Citizens of Canada resident in the United States follow the same procedure. Citizens of Canada resident in the Dominion of Canada follow the same procedure except that they apply to the Department of External Affairs, Ottawa. If they are going to Austria by way of London, they will pick up their permits at the British Military Permit Office in London; if not, they will receive them before leaving the Dominion. The procedure takes three weeks.

AUSTRIAN STATE TOURIST DEPARTMENT

Citizens of all other countries apply to the Austrian Legation, 1706 21st St., Washington, D.C. or to the nearest Austrian Consulate General, 683 - 5th Avenue, New York City, or the Austrian Consulate General, 417 So. Hill St., Los Angeles, California.

Business visitors to the American British Zones of Austria will receive permits if they accompany their applications with a statement covering the nature of the business they wish to transact, the names and addresses of persons or firms which they wish to visit, the expected date of their arrival in Austria and the length of their stay in the country. They are advised to make advance hotel reservations and are required to stay at hotels of the official list.

Persons wishing for compassionate reasons to visit the American Zone are required, when applying for permit, to submit a medical certificate from the attending physician of the person they wish to visit, accompanied by an endorsement of approval by a competent United States Military Government Officer at Linz, Salzburg or Vienna. If the travel is to the British Zone, no medical certificate is required, the applicant being required to furnish the address in Austria to which he wishes to proceed and the full reasons for his visit. If the travel is to the French Zone, communicate with: French Consulate, Wyoming Avenue, Washington, D.C.

Automobiles May Be Taken Into Austria by requesting a military permit for the car at the time of applying for passport and permit. Gasoline is ample and ration books are issued to foreign visitors, the first office of issuance coming from the west being the Vorarlberger Reiseburo, Kirchplatz 1, Feldkirch.

Tourist Offices should collect in full for hotel reservations before the traveler leaves the U.S.A. Checks should be made out to: THE AUSTRIAN STATE TOURIST DEPARTMENT, 247 Park Avenue, New York 17, N.Y. Give name of Tourist and hotel.
